

August 22, 2005

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

www.ArtsVaughan.com

RE: Arts Group sets time and location for initial meeting

Tuesday, September 27th 7pm SHARP

At the Gallanough Library – 2nd floor

1 Brooke St. Thornhill

Thursday, September 29th 7pm SHARP

At the Resource Library on Clark and Bathurst

900 Clark Ave W., Thornhill

September 12, 2005 - www.ArtsVaughan.com - Eric Levine announced today the location and times for the public meeting in which the community is invited to participate in an open forum to exchange ideas and discuss the issues surrounding future development of the Arts in Vaughan. Arts Vaughan is an initiative, at arms length from the city of Vaughan, which intends to look into the formation of an arts council in Vaughan.

Arts Vaughan's vision is to work toward towards promoting public awareness and community involvement of the Arts in the City of Vaughan. Arts Vaughan will exist to connect individual artists, patrons of the arts and the various arts groups in the City thus creating a social network from which to build upon for future development of the Arts in Vaughan.

Visit www.ArtsVaughan.com for further information.

Arts Vaughan is a new organization and first of its kind specific to the arts in Vaughan which will be open to all members of the community. Everyone interested can apply for affiliation and the organization is set to elect an executive board.

Artists who live in Vaughan from all creative disciplines and all levels of development are encouraged in particular, to sign up. Membership to Arts Vaughan is currently free and offers free internet links from the Arts Vaughan website to local artists who wish to link their website to the Arts Vaughan network.

Further information on organization can be found on the website: <http://www.ArtsVaughan.com>

Eric Levine

press@artsvaughan.com

905-881-6400

1054 Centre St. Suite #262

Thornhill, Ontario

L4J 8E5